

SHAKESPEARE IN PHILOSOPHY AT GARRICK'S TEMPLE
SATURDAY 25 JUNE 2022

THE FRANKFURT SCHOOL AND SHAKESPEARE

10.00: Chair: Jennifer Rust (Saint Louis University)

Paul Kottman (New School New York): 'Shakespeare and the Culture Industry'

11.00: Coffee break

11.30 Chair: Richard Ashby (King's College University of London)

Julia Ng (Goldsmith's University of London): 'Hamlet in the Parlamonium'

Howard Caygill (Kingston University): 'Benjamin and the Sonnets'

13.00 Lunch

14.30: Chair: David Schalkwyk (Queen Mary University of London)

Björn Quiring (Trinity College Dublin):

'Shylock or Timon? The Immanent Critique of Karl Kraus and Shakespeare's Theatre of Judgement'

Avraham Oz (University of Haifa and Alfa Theatre, Tel Aviv):

'Shakespeare and the Public Sphere: Street Theatre and Pseudo Democracy'

16.00: Tea break

16.30: Chair: Stuart Elden (University of Warwick)

John Joughin:

'Shakespeare's Stranger-Subject: Bloch, Job, Lear and life without a why'

17.30: Round Table Discussion

Chair: Jennifer Rust (Saint Louis University)

To register for this event go to:

<https://thefrankfurtschoolandshakespeare.eventbrite.co.uk>

Due to unforeseen circumstances this is now a free online (Zoom) event but registration is required.